Newsletter 3 6th October 2017

The Pre-School building is finally here! The crane caused much excitement on Wednesday of this week as it put in place the four sections of the new building. Internal work will now begin, as well as landscaping around the site.

Unfortunately, the contractors were unable to put ducting across the playground during the summer, so Monday will see this taking place during the school day. Please be careful dropping off and picking up on Monday as access to the playgrounds may be limited.

Cross Country

Congratulations to the children who ran in the first cross-country event of the year. On a clear Thursday afternoon they competed at Newlands Park. Well done to all that went along with Mr Adkin.

Football

Well done to the new 'A team' footballers who had a decisive win against Leckhampton last week. We hope that this is an early indication of how well the team will do this season!

Fir Class

Unfortunately, Miss Waters will be absent next week. Mrs Anson will once again be taking the class on Monday.

Parent Consultations

You will be receiving an email today concerning how to register for your appointment. If you have any questions, please direct them to the office which will be happy to help.

As Miss Waters is away, parents of children in Fir will have an alternative date to meet and discuss their child after half term.

Structured Conversations

If you are invited in for a structured conversation, this will replace the need for a separate meeting on Parent Consultation Evening

Harvest Festival

Parents of children in the Infant classes are welcomed to come in on Friday 13th at 9am for our Harvest Festival. Parents of children in Years 3 and 5 are then welcome to come in at 2.15 for the Junior Harvest Festival. Because of the Literature Festival and swimming, years 4 and 6 will be elsewhere!

We would welcome donations from all children of various items. These donations will be given to local Foodbanks.

Woodmancote Week of World

Languages 16th-20th October

Do you speak a language other than English? Could you share your experience of the culture in another country?

If so, we would love to hear from you!

Following the success of this event last year, we will again be holding our Week of World Languages the week after next from 16th-20th October.

Mrs. Hubbard would really like to hear from any parent, grandparent or friend who would be able to give up half an hour or so to share a little of their knowledge or experience to the children. You don't need to be an expert to share your enthusiasm for language or culture!

She would be delighted to hear from you via email (address at the end of this newsletter).

Volunteers

We always welcome volunteers into school, but kindly request that you complete a DBS check. This can be arranged with Mrs Williams in the office.
