

30th April 2021

WALT: classify and group living things

delight

Year 4 went on a nature walk around the perimeter of the school field and the outdoor learning area. The objective was to collect one sample of a variety of different plants.

Once collected, we then discussed how we could group and classify the plants. Using a Venn diagram, the children then decide on plants with flowers/leaves or one leaf on a stem/more than one leaf for their criteria.

