Comments from parents

*Thankyou for yesterday, I feel like I've come away from our chat and can make a really start on helping * , without having to overthink everything I'm doing. Knowing I have support is absolutely great and I really do appreciate it! Thankyou also for your kind words, it's definitely something I needed to hear.*

I am so, so grateful for your support and all of the help I've had from you over the last couple of months.

Understanding Your Child (Solihull Parenting) Mrs Workman and Mrs Holder

The Solihull Approach is a team of professionals within the National Health Service in the UK. We work with practitioners and parents to develop new resources to support emotional health and well-being in children, families, adults and older adults.

The sound and well-researched ideas that underpin the Approach are embedded in every aspect of training for professionals, comprehensive resources and groups for parents

Across the UK and internationally, the Solihull Approach supports mental health and wellbeing in parents, children, schools, older adults and high stress workplaces through an evidence based model in trainings, online courses and resources.

The model is about the fundamentals of life...how we relate to each other, how we process our emotions and how knowing about this makes a difference.

Comments from Parents

I'm not sure what I was expecting, but have found it far exceeded anything I may have expected. It's been an informative, engaging, reassuring and most importantly, fun experience, where I have taken so much from each session.

It's no secret that I thought this wasn't for me from the off. It was much more easy going and good to hear and share stories. I've taken away more than I imagined. I will miss it. It seems to have flown by and I will miss the serious and funny sides.

I will miss the support of the group.

The supportive nature of the group, especially from other parents going through similar experiences has been brilliant. More of this would be great.

Fostering and Adoption Support Group

A small community of parents who can come together and share the joys and challenges of fostering and adoption. The group meets termly and is facilitated by two members of staff, one with first-hand experience of adoption and the other who takes responsibility for the progress of children in care or who have previously been in care.

NEST	Here at Woodmancote School and Little Chestnuts, we recognise the importance of Early Help and as a result, we have a dedicated NEST (Nurturing & Emotional Support Team) consisting of a range of staff members with several years of educational experience between them, each offering different expertise to provide help, support and guidance within school and out. The team consists of: Mr Gary Tucker - Head Teacher Mrs Leanne McNamee - Lead NEST Practitioner and Play Therapist Mr Richard Hoyle/Mrs McCormack - SENCO Mrs Emma Lee - Medical As a team, we meet regularly to discuss any NEST referrals made to us, regarding children or families, with any concerns which could be affecting the mental health and well-being of a child/children or family members. Support for pupils includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing a school culture where pupils are listened to, time to talk is valued and pupils are encouraged to speak of worries and concerns they may be experiencing. • Promoting self-esteem, self-confidence and respect. • Promoting positive coping strategies and resilience to face challenges presented to them. • Promoting positive behaviour and positive attitudes towards learning and each other. • NEST team supporting staff in developing class based strategies and ideas for tackling problems/concerns. • Offering 1-1 or group intervention support through bespoke and planned packages.

- Team Around the Child (TAC) meetings - A multi-agency approach to creating a shared and agreed action plan with the aims of addressing any child issues or concerns.

Support for families include:

- Offering time to come in and chat and share concerns or worries that may be being experienced.
- Providing information and signposting to other local services.
- Liaising with external services to gain access and advice on key issues.
- Advice and support for promoting positive behaviour and mental health at home.
- Offering help in completing forms e.g. foodbank vouchers, attendance, online school forms for free milk/free school meals etc.
- A venue for social groups to come together, talk and support each other.
- Team Around the Family (TAF) meetings - A multi-agency approach to creating a shared and agreed action plan with the aims of addressing any family issues or concerns.

If you have any mental health and well-being concerns regarding your child/children or family please do not hesitate to contact us. This can be done by:

- Speaking to the class teacher.
- Asking for a NEST referral to be made on your behalf via the class teacher.
- Contacting a member of the NEST team directly via email or telephone.

We value that promoting positive mental health and well-being in our children, families and staff is of paramount importance if wanting those within our care to have healthy, successful and happy days within our school environment. Promoting positive mental health strategies through curriculum and learning is paramount but also knowing that support is available through our NEST team is crucial for those needing to access Early Help, hopefully from preventing problems from growing bigger.

Children or young people with multiple needs (vulnerable) or multiple needs (complex) requiring multi-agency input or assessment.

Within Gloucestershire Early Help Hubs (Families First Plus) provide multi-agency support for children and families. A phone call to discuss a possible referral is helpful before making written referral. Woodmancote and Little Chestnuts actively refer to Early Help Hubs when appropriate:

A private fostering arrangement is essentially one that is made without the involvement of a local authority. Private fostering is defined in the Children Act 1989 and occurs when a child or young person under the age of 16 (under 18 if disabled) is cared for and provided with accommodation, for 28 days or more, by someone who is not their parent, guardian or a close relative. (Close relatives are defined as; step-parents, siblings, brothers or sisters of parents or grandparents).

Radicalisation and Extremism (PREVENT duty).

HM Government PREVENT duty: As of 1 July 2015 duty in the Counter-terrorism and security act 2015 for specified authorities (including all schools) to have due regard to the need to prevent people being drawn in to terrorism.

If you see extremist or terrorist content online please report it via:

- All teachers have had training in how to spot the signs of radicalisation and extremism and when to refer to the Channel panels. The Head Teacher and other key staff have received the Home Office WRAP (Workshop to Raise awareness of PREVENT) training.
- Key contacts: Prevent Officer Special Branch Gloucestershire Constabulary tel. 101
- Anti-Terrorist Hotline: tel 0800 789 321

The 'Advice on the Prevent duty' written by the Department for Education explains what governors and staff can do if they have any concerns relating to extremism. The Department for Education has also set up a telephone helpline (020 7340 7264) to enable people to raise concerns directly. Concerns can also be raised by email to counter.extremism@education.gsi.gov.uk. See Appendix 2 for more information on radicalisation.

Prevention: At Woodmancote we teach traditional British values through the curriculum: democracy, rule of law, respect for others, liberty, tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs and promotion of 'Britishness'. Woodmancote has a specific British values focus week as well as specific topics looking at radicalisation and extremism (age appropriate). E-safety is an important aspect of the curriculum to keep pupils safe from radicalisation. Pupils need to understand that radicalisation can be a form of grooming online and understand the notion of propaganda. They need to be taught to be discerning about what they read on the internet as the dangers of speaking to strangers online.

We also seek to equip parents with the knowledge of how to safeguard their children from radicalisation. Let's talk about it is an excellent website for parents www.ltai.info/ as is www.preventtragedies.co.uk While it remains very rare for school age children to become involved in extremist activity to the point of committing criminal acts, young people can be exposed to extremist influences or prejudiced views, including via the internet, from an early age. As with other forms of criminality or risk of harm, early intervention is always preferable. Schools, working with other local partners, families and communities, can help support pupils who may be vulnerable as part of wider safeguarding responsibilities.
